

A native of St. John's, Mary Barry is a multiple award-winning singer, composer and teacher. She is a multilingual artist with a diverse educational and work history that comprises more than three decades of performing and teaching workshops in music, theatre and storytelling festivals, conferences, international symposia and as a visiting artist in the schools. From Victoria to Paris via Magnolia Springs, Alabama, she has been thrilling audiences with her unique blend of jazz, blues, roots and 'chanson', along with endearing stories, personal anecdotes and spontaneous moments that lift audiences with humour and a genuine sense of open heartedness.

In September, 2017 Mary Barry was inducted into the Wreckhouse Jazz & Blues Hall of Fame. In addition to being a multiple Music Music NL and NL Arts & Letters award winner, she took first prize in the CBC Atlantic Song Contest and is a three-time ECMA Nominee.
